Biography

Marcelo «Marcelo Cura» Guelfenbein was born in 1983 in Australia, of a Chilean father and a German mother. He has been living in different cities such as Milan, Barcelona and is now based in Paris. All these changes and multicultural experiences are reflected into his music productions.

Deeply influenced by Hip Hop culture, 90's house and percussion sessions at his young age, he started to move into a minimal aesthetic, inspired by ethereal resonances, dreamy pads and energetic beats. Strong of his sound engineering diploma at EICAR Paris, he developed abilities such as mixing tracks for different artists and himself, it permitted him to become a true perfectionist in the architecture of sounds. Considering music as a medicine, Marcelo is a contemporary music storyteller.

He started DJing in the early 2000's in the main clubs of Paris (such as Rex Club, Zig Zag, Badaboum) and nowadays plays internationally in countries such as Australia, Germany, Spain, England, Italy, Switzerland, Bali, Russia, North-Africa and Israel, alongside international headliner DJs.

He owns today the vinyl and digital label CELO Rec and co-founded the label LA CLAP. He released tracks and remixes for over more than ten years in labels such as Kindisch, Baile Musik, Akbal, Trapez, D-Floor, NonStop, Catwash, Time Has Changed, Inwave & much more. His tunes are now supported by big artists such as Marco Carola, Carl Cox, Joseph Capriati, Jamie Jones ..

Mr Cura deeply believes that music can cure us and make us unite as one. Be sure to stay stunned because new projects are coming soon!
